

Rigid transformations

A rigid transformation is one that doesn't change it's shape or size, BUT changes its location on a coordinate plane.

There are three types of rigid transformations:

1. Translation (slide)
2. Rotation
3. Reflection (mirror image)

Memorize these!!

